Consent to Information Sharing

Introduction

- Hello my name is Tamara Pachner
- I am a Social Worker at Rutland County Council
- I work in Adult Social Care with Lorraine Tarratt, Ren Campling and Vandana Ferguson
- I Audit, check work, to look at what has gone well and what we could do better

Draft Consent to Information Sharing form

- I have written a draft Consent to Information Sharing form. Consent is being asked if you agree to something
- Draft means that the form is not finished yet
- Look at the form. Can you understand it?
- What is good about the form?
- What is not so good about the form?
- Do I need to make any changes?

This is the Consent form that workers working in Adult Social Care use.

I think that we need to design an Easy Read form.

Consent to Information Sharing

Consent is being asked if you agree to something.

This means saying yes  or saying no

Sometimes it is important to share information about you like:

- your personal details
- your wishes and plans
- your assessments
- your reports

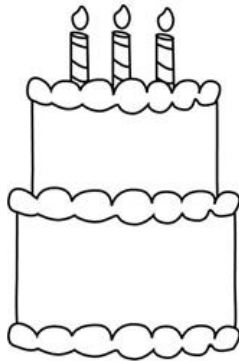

with professionals like:

- your Doctor, a Nurse
- a Support Worker
- a member of staff where you live

This is called sharing information and helps us to help you.
